GEOTREES EDITOR'S NOTE:

We are pleased to forward this invitation in behalf of Baltimore's Black Lives Matter Interfaith Coalition, or BLMIC, for their streetside rally this coming Saturday, May twenty-second.

History is being made in Baltimore in our own time, history in the spirit of understanding, reconciliation, justice, and peace. The Coalition - along with its member organizations, supporters, and peers; and with the grassroots communities and citizens of Baltimore - is part of that process. It's an honor to invite you and your readers to participate.

For more information, please contact Ryan Sattler, points of contact below, or visit the Coalition's Facebook page. Thank you.

A "Black Lives Matter" Rally at Gwynn Oak UMC, Baltimore

Dear BLMIC, Black Lives Matter Interfaith Coalition, members and supporters:

SAVE THE DATE -- We are pleased to announce that our next BLMIC Rally will be held on Saturday, May 22nd, from 11 am til 12 Noon. We will gather in front of the Gwynn Oak United Methodist Church, 5020 Gwynn Oak Avenue, in Baltimore.

As we gather to proclaim that Black Lives Matter and to Stop Asian Hate, we invite everyone to always remember:

"Lead with Love! Hate is Not Welcome Here!"

Gwynn Oak UMC has just added their church to the growing list of BLMIC co-sponsors. Pastor Dell Hinton will welcome us with comments and an opening prayer. Plenty of street parking is available. We hope many of our faithful supporters will be with us as we remember the violent deaths of so many, especially Freddie Gray, six years ago, and George Floyd one year ago.
