

GEOTREES EDITOR'S INVITATION:

Year after year, it is our special pleasure to watch as this event becomes a cherished Northern Virginia tradition. During your editor's boyhood this region was an integral part of the classic Rural American South, where Tom Sawyer, Fern "Charlotte's Web" Arable, and Nathan Bedford "No Prisoners" Forrest would have found themselves comfortably at home. Now it's becoming a crossroads and a community for some of the finest, most forward-looking people from around the planet. This remarkable celebration bears joyful witness to this blossoming transformation.
