

E-MAIL and CALENDAR GROUPS to Which Geotrees is Subscribed

Saturday, January 14, 2012

Below are many of the e-mail and calendar groups to which I'm subscribed, most of them on YahooGroups, and to which I post announcements in behalf of a number of people and organizations. These are in addition to those I moderate, and do not include a large number of independent groups and lists of key individuals. For a list of Geotrees' own public groups and pages, see <http://www.geotrees.com/ftp/how-to-post.pdf>.

Some of these groups appear to be dormant. This list will be updated as their status becomes clear.

This list is Under Construction. Can you think of anything else that should be on it? If so, let me know - I'd be happy to credit you and your own group as source.
